WELCOME TO NICE

HISTORY OF NICE

The history of the French Riviera is one of the longest and most fascinating in all of Europe. Previously, it had once been home to prehistoric, primitive people over 400,000 years ago. From there came Greek settlers around 350 BC. Along the Riviera you'll discover many monuments dedicated to this ancestry. Nice for example was named after the Greek Goddess of victory, Nike. And in the heart of the city, standing proud is a stunning marble statue of the Greek God Apollo. Not long after the Greeks came Roman civilizations. Today you can still visit many ancient Roman ruins along the Riviera. Such as the archaeological site and amphitheatre of Cimiez. Or the Trophy of Augustus in the small village of La Turbie.

WELCOME TO NICE

In the south-east of France you'll find the beautiful Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur region. Or more specifically, the French Riviera. The Capital of the Riviera is Nice. With more than 340.000 inhabitants its the fifth largest city of France and the second most visited tourist destination. The first of course being Paris. Out of the 10 million tourists that come to the Riviera annually, 5 million of them come to Nice alone.

HOW TO GET FROM THE AIRPORT TO TOWN

The easiest way to get from the Airport to the town is by tram. Take the tram no. 2 from your terminal and hop off at either Jean Médecin, Place a Garibaldi or Port Lympia. The ticket is for one way just 1,50. You also have the option to call an UBER or a taxi if you want to get to your accommodation without walking.

BUS & TRAM

Depending on how often you want to take the Bus or the tram it would make sense to get yourself a day pass (5 €), a Multi 10 trips pass (10€) or a 7 day pass (15 €). A single ride is about 1,50 € each. With these tickets you can take any bus/ tram. So you can get to places like Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat, Villefranche-sur-Mer or even Monaco for very cheap.

Get your ticket online.

TRAIN

Especially if you consider to go to cities like Cannes, Antibes, Monaco or Menton it makes sense to take the train, since the bus can take very long. For that, depending on where you stay you have 3 train stations in Nice: The biggest one is Nice Ville right at the end of Ave. Jean Médecin. You can reach the station with the tram no. 1 or the bus No. 87/57/64/71/70. Nice St. Augustin is a station close to the Airport and Nice Riquier can be reached by bus no. 07/18/30/37/57/84. Get your ticket online.

VELO BLEU

Velo Bleu allows you to rent a bike in Nice for a very small price. You can find the Velo Bleu stations all over the town. Like this it allows you to go to almost every part of the city by bike. To rent, follow the instructions at the pick up place. You need to pay a basis fee depending on how long you want to use the bike. The 1-day pass is 1 € and the week-pass is 5 €. The first 30 min are free for you. The next 30-60 min are 1 €, every following hour is 2 €. More information here.

8

BEST BEACHES

PUBLIC BEACHES

Along the Promenade des Anglais you can find several beaches where you can have a dip in the mediterranean sea, tan or have a picnic. The most famous ones are for sure Plage publique de l'opera, where you also can find a volleyball court and la Plage des Ponchettes. If you take a little walk west along promenade you can also find beaches which are a bit more quiet.

PRIVATE BEACHES

In between the public beaches you will find private beaches like Beau Rivage, Castle Beach, Blue Beach or Neptune Beach. In total there are 15 private beaches along the Baie des Anges. The private beaches provide you with beach beds (around 25 Euro), umbrellas and a lifeguard. They also usually offer food and drinks.

HIDDEN BEACHES

If you want to find the hidden beaches in Nice you need to go behind the Port. Here you can find after a short walk la Plage de la Réserve and Coco Beach. Here you can lay in small bays and you also can jump from some cliffs. If you don't mind hiking then you should have a little hike around the Cap de Nice. Here you have several opportunities to go for a swim. But keep in mind that the entry and exit in and out the water can be a bit difficult.
